Learning outcomes before each session must be explained to participants.

Slides will give you an explanation in brief about the slide.

End of session self assessment must be taken up with participants to help you understand if input has been received by them.

Trainer notes for important slides given here for easy reference.
1. Use Facilitator guide to understand the overall use of slides
2. Important Slides have speaker notes for trainer to explain the slides
3. At end of each session use the self-assessment from Facilitator guide to check understanding of the session

Five things to remember

- Always be polite, anyone can get affected by COVID-19. Do not discriminate, shout, or use rude language. Tell people about the purpose of your visit and what you will do with the answers you are seeking. Say that this is the support that the government is giving to all citizens.
- Keep distance of 1 meter. When you meet people, avoid touching or close physical contact. This is true for seeing or listening on one-way or two-way, it is better to sit in the open and speak with the family members in space and situation allows.
- Whenever possible, make sure you are writing, a clear and complete information (addresses, names, contact numbers) is written legibly.
- Always check if people have understood your message correctly by using confirmatory questions. They will usually repeat what they have listened or shared.
- If there are questions and you know the answers, you must share this with the community members. However, if you do not know the answer, do not hesitate to ask so. A lot is still unknown about COVID-19.
